

Reflective Questions

Confidently Knocking

Here are some questions for all of us to really ponder. They are not just yes or no answers. You must answer with your heart. These revelations are between you and God.

1. Jesus knocks on the door of your heart. (Revelation 3:20) Do you open it? Do you open it just a tiny bit, or fling the door wide open?
2. If you do let Jesus in, do you sit at His feet and listen to all He says, like Mary, or are you too concerned with what you must do to make yourself presentable to Him?
3. Are you too busy doing things FOR Him that you neglect to take time WITH Him?
4. Do you invite Jesus to sit in one room, but go into another and completely ignore Him?
5. Would Jesus feel comfortable or uncomfortable in your house?
6. Do you show Jesus how important He is, or minimize Who your guest is?
7. Do you take Jesus for granted?
8. Do you listen to Jesus and then walk away, or do you stay and listen to His advice?
9. If Jesus was there, would you have the same entertainment; tv shows, movies, music, etc....?
10. If you had Jesus in your house, would it change your attitude?

Jesus is knocking on the door of your heart. You must listen and choose to invite Him inside.
